CARD OF THANKS

I would like at this time to gratefully thank the Fire Department for their most wonderful part in helping my home to be saved from the fire that destroyed my storage house Friday night. If it wasn't for them my house would have been lost. They did a wonderful job and I appreciate it so much and for the quick action in getting to Spout Spring so soon after we called.

Thank you.

Richardson--Harvey

Evergreen Baptist Church was the scene of the wedding on Feb. ruary 23rd at 8 o'clock when Miss Phyllis Jennings Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Harvey, of Evergreen, became the bride of Lloyd Edward Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Richardson, of Pamplin.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. E. Greene, assisted by Rev. J. R. Darden.

The church was decorated with palms, ferns, white gladiolus and lighted white tapers in branched candelabras.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Daniel Harvey at the piano, and Mrs. Carter Martin, vocal soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. The V neckline, of the lace bodice, was finished in appliques of the flower motifs of lace. The full floor length skirt of tulle ended in a Cathedral train, treated with wide lace panels, in front and back, falling from waist line to hem line. Her finger tip veil of French illusion was attached to a seed pearl crown. The white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with stephanotis which she carried was also carried by her mother and grandmother on their wedding day.

Miss Ida Belle Harvey was maid of honor and wore a waltz-length taffeta dress of turquoise blue, made princess style with a V neckline. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses with ribbon to match.

Other attendants were Misses Phyllis Paulette, Bertie Harvey and Mrs. James Harris. They were attired in identical dresses and carried similar bouquets.

Herman Richardson was his brother's best man. Ushers were Raymond Kress, Rodney Roach, Howard Williams Jr. and Tadd Jennings.

Mrs. Harvey chose for her daughter's wedding a wool dress of ashes of rose. The groom's mother wore a wool dress of royal blue. Both mothers were comsages of white roses at the shoulder.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hamilton.

For the wedding trip, the bride chose a beige winter suit with matching accessories, topped with a mouton jacket. At the shoulder she wore a white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School, and is employed in Appomattox. The groom is a graduate of the Pamplin High School, served two years in the armed forces and is now engaged in business in Pamplin.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Shearer Robertson was the scene of a gala occasion on Saturday in celebration of the 12th birthday of their daughter, Sandra Faye. The play room was decorated for the occasion and the guests included the following other than the honoree: Misses Brenda Carson, Gloria Puckett, Dolly Ferguson, Dale Gyrus, Ginger Isaacs, Eunice Martin, Nancy Davis, Patsy Wilcox, Nelwyn Coleman; the honoree's grandparents, Mrs. H. A. Torrence, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robertson; Mrs. Helen Coleman, Mrs. Ann Davis and Mrs. Jon Tweedy, Jr. After lunch they all played games and in the afternoon ice cream and cake were served. Sandra received many nice gifts.

Lyons--Cole

Miss Margaret Ellen Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Alexander Young, of Appomattox, and Captain Robert J. Lyons, United States Marine Corps, son of Mrs. Agnes M. Lyons and the late John F. Lyons, of Passaic, N. J., were married Saturday at a military wedding in the Holy Cross Catholic Church, Lynchburg, at 10 A. M. The nuptial mass was said by Monseigneur Francis H. Nott.

The bride wore a gown of oyster white satin and French lace. Her veil fell from an Empress Eugenia cap of silk and lace embroidered with irredescent sequins. She carried a prayer book topped with white orchids and showered with lily of the valley.

Mrs. Richard Kurth, of Washington, D. C., was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ellen Lyons, of Passaic, N. J.; Miss Emily Wood Burke, of Appomattox, and junior bridesmaids were Misses Susan Burke and Jean Cole, of Appomattox. All were princess dresses of ruby red velveteen and carried matching muffs with sprays of petal pink carnations.

Major H. Richard Kurth, Jr., was best man and groomsmen were Captain George B. Crist; Lieutenants Robert R. Marshal, Charles R. Barr, David O. DeGrandpre, J. William Brown, Gearold J. Hepp, all officers of the U. S. Marine Corps stationed at Marine Barracks, Washington, D. C.

After the wedding a breakfast was held at The Columns in Lynchburg, Va., for the wedding party and members of the family.

After a Southern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Washington, D. C., where Captain Lyons is stationed.

ABBITT CALLS FOR FOREIGN AID CHANGE

Representative Watkins M. Abbitt has called for a complete re-evaluation of America's foreign aid program in an effort to determine to what extent the money is needed for the defense of this country and the peace of the world.

The Virginia Congressman declared last week that it is "high time" some of the program should be curtailed and the "spending orgy" on the part of the present Administration should be stopped.

Speaking to the Young Farmers organization of Cumberland County, Abbitt asserted that Congress should demand to know in advance what the money is to be spent for in case of foreign aid and whether spending American money will likely build friendships for this country abroad.

Abbitt declared he does not think such is the case today. "It is outrageous," he said, "that Americans should be taxed unmercifully in order that we maintain an expanded foreign aid program which is largely handled in secret." He added that he thinks much of the foreign aid is being "squandered" on projects and in channels which are of doubtful value.

The Appomattox Congressman said he thinks foreign aid should be the first item cut in the big budget submitted to Congress by President Eisenhower. He labeled the budget as "inflationary" and said the federal government is largely responsible for what inflation there is today. He said he is convinced that if spending ideas are not stopped now "this nation cannot survive economically."

He said President Eisenhower is calling upon private industry and labor to fight inflation when at one and the same time his administration comes forward with the most inflationary budget ever offered or presented to a nation."

Abbitt said any efforts to turn back inflation must begin in Washington and "they must begin now." He said it is the responsibility of Congress to make substantial cuts in the budget and he thinks cuts will be made.

THE NAUTILUS

The Navy has revealed that the nuclear - powered submarine Nautilus, logged her 20,000th league on February 4th, without refueling. Comdr. Eugene P. Wilkerson, skipper of the Nautilus, said as the submarine fulfilled the 87-year old prophecy of Jules Verne: "Mark 20,000 leagues. Right full of rudder." To that date, the sub had cruised more than 9,400 hours, made 859 dives and covered about 80,000 miles and had been submerged, on the original nuclear fuel charge.
